

Product Name and Version : MDFlow EHR 8.1

The patient EHI export contains data from the patient's chart. Multiple file formats are used to store this information.

ZIP is an archive file format.

C-CDA or Consolidated Clinical Document Architecture is a file format used for health information exchange.

The export file itself is a zip file. It contains zip files of C-CDAs

Information for each patient encounter is available C-CDA format in zip archive.